

Counter-Terrorism Protective Security and Preparedness: Individuals/Learners - FAQs

① Is the qualification available now?

No, the qualification is currently being developed. It is designed to be suitable for those with little to no experience in Counter-Terrorism Security, through to those who have security responsibility in a variety of sectors.

② Why should I complete the SFJ Awards/NaCTSO qualification over other training?

This is the only qualification designed and developed in collaboration with and endorsed by the National Counter Terrorism Security Office (NaCTSO). Registration fees include access to high-quality course materials, trainer guidance, learner manuals, and assessments.

③ Where/How can I complete the qualification?

Once the qualification is live, you will need to enrol with an SFJ Awards approved centre (or with your employer if applicable). You can explore our approved centres on our centre directory. Alternatively, you can contact the main office directly who will be able to give you the contact details of approved centres.

④ How do I complete the ACT Awareness and ACT Security e-Learning?

The ACT Awareness and ACT Security e-Learning will both be clearly signposted within the course pre-reading which will be provided to you by your training provider once you have enrolled on the qualification. However, if you would like to complete this e-Learning now, then please follow these links and complete the joining instructions provided:

- ACT Awareness e-Learning
- ACT Security e-Learning
