Qualification Objectives

What does this qualification cover?

The objective of this qualification is to provide learners with the underpinning knowledge and skills required by practitioners who manage a complex early interventions caseload.

Who is the qualification for?

This qualification is suitable for experienced case workers, who wish to further develop and have recognition for their knowledge, understanding and competence. These learners will be responsible for complex and higher risk cases, which involves a significant level of multiagency working. As well as building and maintaining relationships with individuals and families, learners working at this level will therefore need to be able to work effectively with professionals in partner agencies and disciplines.

Who supports this qualification?

This qualification has been developed to support the professionalisation of the early interventions workforce and to provide a flexible progression route for those who work, or aspire to work, in the sector.

Qualification Progression

What future education could this qualification lead to?

Learners who successfully complete the Level 4 Professional Certificate in Early Interventions Work are able to progress to the Level 5 Diploma in Early Intervention and Family Support offered by SFJ Awards.

What future employment could this qualification lead to?

Learners who complete this qualification will be able to progress into a role as a practitioner who manages a complex early interventions caseload.

Qualification Achievement

What are the entry requirements for the qualification?

Prior to registration learners are required to be:

- accurately identified
- at least 18 years of age

As this qualification builds on the knowledge and skills gained from the Level 3 Professional Certificate in Early Interventions Work, learners will be expected to have either already achieved this qualification or be able to demonstrate understanding and competence at this level through experience and/or previous study.

How will it be assessed?

This qualification contains 4 mandatory units to be completed by the learner. Each unit is comprised of a number of learning outcomes and assessment criteria which must all be achieved.

Learning outcomes that begin ‘The learner will understand...’ will be assessed through theory-based activities.

Learning outcomes that begin ‘The learner will be able to...’ are assessed through practical activities.

SFJ Awards is an awarding organisation recognised and regulated by the Office of the Qualifications and Examinations Regulation (Ofqual) in England, Council for the Curriculum, Examinations and Assessment (CCEA) Regulation in Northern Ireland, Qualifications Wales in Wales, and SQA in Scotland.

SFJ Awards is part of the Workforce Development Trust, a not for profit organisation, together with Skills for Justice and Skills for Health. For over 10 years Skills for Health and Skills for Justice have been working with employers, Governments of the UK and agencies within the skills system, to better equip workforces with the right skills now and for the future. During this time both Skills for Health and Skills for Justice have earned an enviable reputation for their knowledge of the health and justice sectors and their proactive approach to the development of skills and qualifications, along with an ability to deliver genuinely workable solutions for the employers they represent. SFJ Awards is an awarding organisation that builds upon this reputation. We work with employers in the policing, community safety, legal, armed forces and health sectors and understand their specific challenges, enabling us to quality assure learning outcomes that are suited to the needs of the sectors.
